You can have a Personal Resume/Reference/I.D. Page on Retrac.com. Here's a description from our resident Expert
— I.B. Rumpelstiltskin

Your Name

- + Appellations + Awards + Citations
- + Brief description of your Experience (72 words or less)
- + Photo (Full-body Portrait in conservative Business Attire; 8"-10" high so reader identifies with you, the author)
- + Your Web Page Address (We will supply you with this.)

A List of your accomplishments that specifically demonstrate your employee potential.

- You are looking for an employer who tells you what you need to know to optimize your contribution to the Company's Workflow. What are the unpublished House Rules?

These are suggestions not requirements:

- A brief description of why you are a superior prospect for employment or promotion based-on your potential contribution to a-Workflow that increases the company's Margins.
- Why you chose to do what you are doing to make a living — and how that matches your Career Aspirations
- That you are familiar with: Peter Drucker's MBO + Toyotas 5-Why's + Honda's Waigaya + Six Sigma + TQM.
- Your A.I. => I.A.P. Rating. When a prospective employer or their Representative asks you, "what I.A.P. means", it will put you in control of the Interview. (I.A.P. => Intellectually Autonomous Person)

List: Your eMail address + mailing address + telephone number, and any other appropriate contact information.

If you are applying for a Job/Position keep in Mind that since you are uniquely qualified for employment in an A.I.-oriented company, that you are interviewing the company as well as they are interviewing you.

Page Criteria: You send us your Page Copy and Photo. We design your Page and submit a Draft for your approval. You get 2 Drafts. Personal Web Page = $720 (3 Years and includes 1 redo from feedback + 1 redo for Career/Employment Shift)
